Water Paintings At Art Exhibition

Water colors by Iowa artists will be featured in an art exhibition to be held Sunday through Wednesday, April 10-13, in the lounge of Wartburg hall, according to Miss Helen Wright, head of the art department.

Made up of paintings collected by the Sioux City Woman's club, the exhibition contains 40 pictures, a few of which will be displayed each day of the exhibit. The water colors vary from abstract expressions to literal interpretations, according to Miss Wright.

Frederick Sweet of the Chicago Art Institute judged the Sioux City show and selected the pictures to be included in the exhibition.

Rubinstein To Top Series

Outstanding number of the 1949-50 Artist Series, as recently announced by Dr. A. W. Swensen, committee chairman, will be the program of Arthur Rubinstein, acclaimed by many as the world's greatest pianist.

Other scheduled performances include those by the Farban Simonofetti, a company of 20, and two symphonies, operas new and best, Jerome Hines.

Averages 150 Concerts. Rubinstein, who averages 150 concerts a year and earns a minimum of $3,500 a concert, was praised recently in the Reader's Digest for his genius and showmanship.

Concerning this great pianist, the magazine said, "Merely as a spectacle Rubinstein is impressive. As he bounds onto the stage he has the strange metallic look of an impassive Oriental (old) about to be involved in some sinister, cabalistic ritual. His stocky body is surmounted by a male-like face topped with a fuzzy fringe of graying hair. He attacks his piano with

Jerome Hines, 20 years old, considered by the New York Times as one of the best American artists, made his professional debut at the age of 18, while still in college. Since that time he has sung with the San Francisco opera, has been soloist at the Hollywood Bowl, and has performed with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, New Orleans and Central City orchestras.

Hines Wins Award. Mr. Hines won last year's $1,000 Caruso award, given annually by the Caruso Foundation. Farban Simonofetti, who directs the Farban Simonofetti, is a well-known violinist and assistant conductor of the St. Louis Symphony orchestra. Pianist with this group is young Edith Schiller, whose musicianship is acclaimed by all who hear her.

It has been said of this ensemble that every performer in it is a concert artist. The New York Herald Tribune says "The combined technique, pulsating tone and flawless integration seemed the result of fine individual talents integrated in one artistic entity."

Rubinstein Foremost. In bringing Rubinstein to Wartburg college the Artist Series committee will be bringing the pianist who succeeded the ever-famous Paderewski as the foremost pianist of the world. This 59-year-old musician has toured all parts of the western world for 40 years.

Born in Poland, Rubinstein first came to the United States at the age of 16. He says he was not a good pianist at that time and gives as his incentive for becoming a first-rate pianist his four children.

Evening Of Fun At Talent Show

By Claude Greiling
Roaring laughter and a whole evening of fun and talent in store for those who attend the junior class talent show tonight in the college gym. The Wartburg will rise at 7:15 p.m. on a show jam-packed with instrumental numbers, humorous sketches and popular singing.

Marvin Goetz, junior, in charge of arranging the show, has been working hard these last few weeks to give the college family a real treat tonight. He hopes that his efforts will be rewarded by a record attendance. Don Bach, also a junior, will MC the show and entertain the crowd between the 10 numbers listed on the program.

"Since the numbers will be judged by applause, we encourage the spectators to voice their opinions by clapping and whistling. Boiling won't be necessary, since all the numbers are class A-1 entertainment," said Mary.

Judges will be Dr. Edwin (How Tie) Lilemon and the Rev. Dean (The Hair) Kilgus. They will award the prizes, ranging from $3 for first to $1 for third.

"Admission charge is 25 cents a person, double if you don't want to go alone," added Mary. "If we make any profit, I'll go toward paying for the junior class banquet in May."

He refused to give the names of the artists, and maybe it's just as well that way.

Red-hot contest between two aspirants to the Wartburg student body presidency, Omar Bonderud and Jim Keller, is shaping up on the Wartburg campus this week-end. Students will decide the issue at the student body election to be conducted next Monday, April 11, at Luther hall.

Cast For Play Recently Named By Wilderman

Cast for the spring Wartburg Players' production, "George Washington Slept Here" was named this week by Raymond Wilderman, director.

In the role of Mr. Kemper, a backwoods farmer, will be Harold Wienke, freshman. Newton Fuller, middle-aged "nature boy" of this former Broadway comedy, will be played by Gerald Koehls, his wife, Annabelle, will be portrayed by Carol Leicher, sophomore. Understudy for this part is Ruth Engelbrecht, junior.

Lots Jaun Jauner. Fuller's daughter, Madge, a frivolous gal, will be played by Frances Cleary, senior. Paul Lohes, junior, will act the part of Steve Eldridge. In the role of the bachelorette, Dora, is more, Esther Blasius, senior, is cast as Mrs. Douglas. George Nielsen, junior Flayer, will play the part of Clayton Evans.

Another member of the large cast is Jean Lampe, junior, who will act the role of Hester, an uneducated maid. Sylvia Meyn, sophomore, will portray Lett Leslie, city-bred actress. Raymond, a more than mischievous young brat, will be acted by Doris Herbold, sophomore.

Neler Rich Miser. Rich old miser, Uncle Stanley, will be played by Ray Meier, junior. Another junior, Edwin Breussner, will play the role of Leggett Frazer. Tommy Hughes, a teen-age visitor, will be acted by Fred Mobers, freshman, and the role of Mr. Prescott, a fussy neighbor, by Loren Nollberg.

In the two other supporting roles are Helen Remmers, sophomore, as Sue Barrington, and Lucille Wendler, freshman, as Miss Wilcox. Assistant director is Jane Aardal, junior, from Waverly.

Practices are already under way for this production, which will be presented on Senior day, May 4.

Omar Bonderud is a 30-year-old English major from Carington, N. D., best known on the Wartburg campus as editor-in-chief of the TRUMPET. He also served this year as secretary to the Senate and editor of the Wartburgian and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Political Science Discussion Club. Also active in Luther League work, Bonderud is a member of the Literature Committee of the International Luther League and a former president of the Jamestown, N. D. Federation.

Keller, also Dakota, is a 21-year-old English major from Jamestown, N. D., who served last fall as chairman of the 1948 Homecoming festivities. As a member of Student Senate last year, he served as chairman of the student elections committee. During the basketball season, Keller played as a center for the Kappa chapter, and this spring is participating in track. While in school at Jamestown, Jim was elected to the office of high school student body president.

Keller and Bonderud are the only candidates remaining in the vote for the student body president. The election will be held at the presidential primary last Monday. Merrill Herder, Francis Neumann and L. J. Schaefer were the other candidates, but all were eliminated. Next speaker, Jim Keller, announced that he was an active supporter of the student body objectives if elected student body president. Of the two remaining candidates, Keller has received his support to Bonderud, while the other, Luven Sauerby, asked his supporters to back Keller in the final election.

Campaigning Hot. Heavy campaigning for the two remaining candidates has been hot and heavy all week, and if the election is held on Monday, the election of student body president will be a close one. The final votes cast, a record presidential primary for Wartburg, will only vote separate for the two candidates.

Bonderud received 10 votes and Keller 202. Francis Neumann received 64 votes, Merrill Herder 82 and Luven Sauerby 40, to complete the first five.

Other juniors on the primary ballot who received substantial backing were Paul Leicher, 76 votes; Kenneth Krueger, 73; Waldo Hines, 64; and Marshall Becker, 61; and Harold Meyer, 60.

Following the closing of the polls for student body president at about 4 p.m. on Monday, the positions will be heard by the various district boards. The positions of sophomore, junior and senior president will be heard next year. Class presidents are scheduled for Monday, April 11, at 7:20 p.m. in Luther hall, sophomore in the lecture room of Grossmann hall and freshman in chapel hall.

Final Election Wednesday

Section of Wartburg election, final election of class presidents will take place on Wednesday, April 20, in order to give the greatest possible number of people an opportunity to vote, election tables will be placed in Luther hall and elections handled by the Student Senate elections committee.

Thursday evening, April 21, at 7:20 p.m., nominations will be heard by the freshman, sophomore and junior classes for next year's representatives on Student Senate. With the class president automatically being a member, three other Student Senators will be elected by each class. The election of Student Senators will take place the following Monday, April 25, in the administration building.

Nelson Named Athletic Director

In a reorganization move that is in line with Wartburg's expanding physical education program, Melvin (Nellie) Nelson has been named athletic director as of April 1, as announced by President C. H. Becker.

"Ax" Bundgaard, who has had this position since the fall of 1947, requested to be relieved of the athletic directorship, but will continue as head of the college physical education department. Work in this department has been increasing constantly, especially since the major in physical education was added. A full physical education major for women also is now being offered.

Coaching responsibility will remain as it has been. Coach Nelson will head football and wrestling, and Bundgaard will continue as varsity basketball coach, track coach and assistant in football. "Eddie" Oppermann, who will continue as acting dean of students, will handle baseball, assist in football and work with the Squires in basketball.

(The Rev. Marvin Grunke, who was to have returned next year as dean of students, will continue for another year at the University of Minnesota, where he is studying in the field of counseling and guidance. According to Dr. Becker, Mr. Grunke will return in the fall of 1950.)

With the new half-million dollar gymnasium available next year, Wartburg's physical education facilities have been greatly expanded. The new football practice field and a track are now being prepared. The new tennis courts have been in use since last fall, and the baseball field is being conditioned for use this season.

Squad Runs For Openers

By Adam Meldinger

With the Wartburg baseball season opening with a pair of conference games during Easter vacation, Earnie Oppermann, diamond mentor, has been running his men through the paces in preparation for the initial onslaught.

A stiff 14-game schedule is in store for the Knights, and much more to be done before the two tilts next week. On Thursday, the Knights open on the new Wartburg field against the Golden Eagles of Westmar college.

On Saturday of next week, the Bucks and Grange will tangle with the tough Buena Vista Beavers. This game will also be played on the home diamond.

Run Through Two Tills.

Coach Oppermann ran his boys through two six-inning tilts last Saturday to see how they reacted under fire. The squads were the Cubs and the Cards and they battled to a 7-7 tie as 40 men saw action.

Paul (Red) Lechner, Bill Hansen, Jack Borz and Al Brunicheweg went three innings apiece for the Cards. Dick Zimmermann hurled two frames for the Cubs and was followed by Walter (Gus) Beaglake, Dean Benese and Robert (Pete) Mueller each of whom went three stanzas. Lyle Bergstrasser threated the final inning for the Cubs.

"Red" Lechner and Bill Hansen held the Cubs to only one hit in three innings, that being a single, but last third base, to send Otto Zwanziger home with the first run.

Lechner Shows Up Well.

Lechner showed up especially well as he struck out seven batters and allowed only one ball to be hit out of the infield in his three innings of work.

Cards tagged Zimmermann for two runs in each of the first and second frames, but it was not entirely his fault, as he had rather poor support. Four misplays were committed behind him.

Extra base blows in the game numbered seven, six doubles and one triple. Johnny Michaelson, Paul Olson, Lechner, Walt Block, Mary Engel and "Duke" Lecker swatted the two-base hits, while Mel Kramer blasted the three-baser into deep left-center for the best hit of the day.

Only Two Hit Twice.

Only two men got more than one hit in the 12 inning fracas. Kramer got a triple and a single, and Jack Borz, the diminutive left-handed pitcher, got two ground singles.

Pitchers seemed to have an edge over the batters in this first intrasquad game. The batters garnered only 17 hits, while the hurlers combined to strike out 32 batters and walk 13.

Schedule for the Knights this year is as follows:

- April 14—Westmar at Waverly.
- April 16—Buena Vista at Waverly.
- April 23—Winona at Winona, Minn.
- April 26—Loras at Waverly.
- April 30—Simpson at Indiana.
- May 4—Luther at Waverly.
- May 5—Upper Iowa at Fayette.
- May 11—Upper Iowa at Waverly.
- May 13—Buena Vista (night) at Storm Lake.
- May 14—Westmar at LeMars.
- May 16—Simpson (2) at Waverly.
- May 17—Luther at Decorah.
- May 20—Loras (night) at Dubuque.

Someone has said that before retelling a tale one should be certain that it is kind, that it is true and that it is necessary. Well, this tale is kind, beyond a doubt, but your columnist will not swear to its truthfulness. It is absolutely necessary, as this column must be written.

Many years ago there lived an Italian and a German who were interested in sports. They both realized that there was not enough variety in sports, so each of them originated a new sport.

The German originated the sport of bowling, and the Italian introduced the sport of billiards. Neither sport seemed to catch the fancy of the public, but it did result in the Italian's hearing about the work of the German. He decided to visit the German and discuss their favorite pastimes.

Of course, the German argued in favor of bowling as a most healthful sport. After all, you have to take several steps every time you throw the ball. The Italian argued in favor of billiards as a most healthful sport, as you get exercise crawling on and off the table. He was that as it may, it did result in publicity, and the two sports soon caught on with the public and have lasted until the present day.

Today, no one remembers these two men because of the types of entertainment which they introduced. But they are remembered for something more important. The Italian, who introduced the sport of billiards was none other than Christopher Columbus, the discoverer of America. The German who introduced the sport of bowling is better known today as the great reformer, Martin Luther.

Scots Will Appear Dedication Evening

Appearance of the Scottish Highlanders, composed of 63 plaided lasses from the State University of Iowa, will be one of the big features of commencement and dedication week during the latter part of May, as announced this week by Dr. A. W. Swensen, program chairman.

Scheduled to appear the evening of gymnasium dedication day, May 26, the Highlanders make up the largest Scottish bagpipe band in the world. They will present a program of bagpipe band selections, Scottish folk songs, a drum dance and many novel dances and musical numbers.

Three times larger than the average pipe band, the Highlanders is the most expensively garbed bagpipe band in the world, with uniforms valued at over $35,000. They have travelled 35,000 miles on tour and played before two and one-half million people since organizing in 1937.

"Don't forget to get some weird background music. It's gotta be strictly from nowhere."

"I'll cue you in after the bridge on page three."

"Hey—we need a filler mike on this speech!"

With remarks like this becoming common campus repartee, Wartburg is getting radio-happy—but fast. And everyone seems to be enjoying it!

Monday Marks Beginning. Monday marked the beginning of the big second semester project drive, which is aiming at $1,000 to buy equipment for Wm FM station to be set up next fall. "You are supporting a greater Wartburg when you support the drive," is its motto.

"We are hoping the students will give generously to the radio station project," stated Harold Kruger, co-chairman of the drive. "The sum of $1,000 isn't too much to expect for a project which will so closely affect the students and be of such benefit to the college."

The drive will extend after Easter vacation until April 22. During the last week a table will be set up in the Ad building where the off-campus students' donations will be received.

Will Be Fourth Station. Incidentally, when Wartburg gets its station, it will mean that Iowa has more educational radio stations in operation than any other state in the Union. Now there are three—WOL at Iowa State college, Ames; KWLC at Luther college, Decorah, and WSUI at the State University of Iowa in Iowa City.

In preparation for the great day when Wartburg begins broadcasting, the radio class students, assisted by the Wartburg players, have been making regular trips to Waterloo to put shows "on tape." The programs are preserved on a tape recording for play-back to a later date over the Waterloo station.

In the photograph above students are seen recording "Two Bottles of Red," a mystery thriller. They have produced a number of other shows, including the outstanding Norman Corwin scripts, "My Client Curley" and "Sensu Radio's Here to Stay."

Experience On East Station.

Further experience will be attained by work on the temporary laboratory station now in operation. Students who are fascinated by radio but are keeping their interest a secret are urged to call on their services to Fran Neumann, program manager.

"We want to use everyone who's interested in radio," emphasized Raymond Wilderman of the speech department and guardian angel of the project. "Starting next Monday, we will extend broadcasting time from 3:30 to 6 p.m. so that all the students who want to can get experience behind the mike."

Charter At IFTA

Adoption or rejection of the new charter will be the main subject on the agenda April 20 at a meeting of the Wartburg chapter of the Iowa Future Teachers association, according to Anna Marie Walther, senior and president.

At the meeting to be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. the organization will nominate and elect next year's president and discuss second semester dues.

Appearance of Miss Arlene Russell, chief librarian of the Waverly public library, at an IFTA meeting has been postponed.

Senate Reorganizes Under New Rules At Monday Meeting

Student Senate was reorganized according to the provisions of the new student body constitution at the Senate meeting Monday evening. Appointments to the four standing committees were made by the executive committee, and a member-at-large of the executive committee was elected by Senate members.

Newly created research committee of the Senate will consist of Norman Fintel, chairman, sophomore; Jerry Herberer and Jo Pries, seniors; John Walker, junior, and Melvin Kramer, freshman. Social center committee, also a new standing committee, consists of Clifford Maden, Melvin Kramer and Lillian Plann, all freshmen.

Jo Pries was named as the new member of the elections committee. Other members carried over from the old constitution are Jim Keller, chairman, junior; Elaine Schleutinger, senior, and Arthur Klein and Lillian Plann, freshmen. Because Jim Keller is running for office, Elaine Schleutinger is acting as chairman of the elections committee until after the election of the student body president.

Named as new member on the student activities committee was Donald Schmidt, senior. Other members on the committee are Ray Meier, Harold Meyer and George Roeder, juniors, and Norman Fintel, Katherine Smith and Judy Vogel, sophomores.

Completing the reorganization, Bill Boyken, sophomore, was elected member-at-large on the Senate executive committee.

Reports were also given by Marianne Schmidt, junior and co-chairman of the radio project drive, and Arnold Inubusch, chairman-elect of the 1949 Homecoming. Other business included the adoption of Knight-head stationery for official Student Senate correspondence and a recommendation that clubs hold election of officers during their April meeting.

150 To Proclaim Easter Story

Proclaiming the Easter story, 150 combined voices of the two Wartburg choirs and St. Paul's choir will present the Easter portions of Handel's "Messiah" Sunday, March 10, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Included in the program will be several choruses from the "Messiah"—"Behold the Lamb of God," "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," "Since by Man Came Death," "Worthy is the Lamb That Was Slain" and the "Hallelujah" chorus.

Soloists for the event are James Tanner, Waterloo, tenor; Judy Vogel, Wartburg sophomore, contralto; Marvin Goetz, Wartburg junior, baritone, and Mrs. Floyd Epley, Shell Rock, soprano. Dr. Edwin Lienobin, head of the college music department, will direct, and Dr. Robert Hieber, organ instructor, will serve as organist.

Vacation Coming

Easter vacation will officially begin on Wednesday, April 13, at 4 p.m. as given on the college calendar. Vacation will end with the beginning of classes on Tuesday, April 19.
